Dedication

The Parents

We, the Senior Class of Scotts Hill High School, wish to dedicate this 1963 edition of The Lion to you - OUR PARENTS!

Because you desire for us the higher and finer things of life;

Because you deny yourself so that we may have that which you did not have;

Because you understand when all our world goes wrong;

And, because we know if your wishes could come true, we would each live a full and happy life.

This has truly been one of the best, if not the best year in the history of our school.

As each year passes, we can see a growing respect for our Alma Mater and for all the people who are striving to make of her the best. The student body is growing more concerned, and each pupil is becoming convinced that he or she is an important part in the system.

When each and everyone of us can see that what we do either good or bad has a direct effect upon all others, then and only then are we on our way in having the kind of school in which all of us can be justly proud.

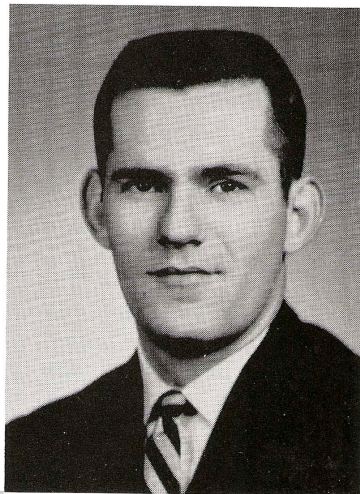

Sincerely yours,

Class Prophecy of 1963

The year is 1976. I, Sherry Dennison, am employed by the Campbell & Campbell Dill Co., located in Savannah, Georgia. The company is owned by Bobby and Glen Campbell. While traveling across the U. S. selling dill pickles, I stopped at Woody Woodpecker's Service Station in Oxford, Mississippi. To my surprise a classmate of mine, Lewis Pike, owned the service station. Lewis told me that Joe Rushing is now a Professor at Ole Miss. I stopped for lunch at Monty's Cafe. Eva Sue Kelley and her husband are the proud owners of this cafe. When I came into Baton Rouge, Louisiana, I heard Bobby Grissom campaigning for the Presidency on the court square. Bobby and Rebecca McKenzie are now married and have six healthy boys.

In the late evening I pulled in at McScrooge's Hotel. The bellboy was Doyle Yates. Gayle Kelley is manager of the hotel. The next day I stopped in Little Rock, Arkansas, to get my hair set. Diane Rogers and Nancy Rimmer are two of the hairdressers. They tell me that Dwayne Wyatt is now singing bass for the James Family quartet. In Missouri, I ran into Betty Hodge who is a private secretary to Don Creasy who owns a large toothbrush factory. Betty tells me she keeps in touch with Nell Rogers, and that Nell is now a receptionist for a psychiatrist in St. Louis, Missouri. She also tells me that Gale Swift is a basketball and football coach at Macdud University. When I came into Kentucky, I learned that Ronald Powers was a horseracer in the Kentucky Derby. While talking to Ronald he told me that Neal Mitchell owns a tobacco farm in Frankfort. Jerry Martin helps Neal run the farm. I read on a sign that Diane White will be appearing in person with Millard Pritchard's Band at the Opera House on twenty-first street.

As I was coming across the Tennessee State Line I heard a terrific explosion. I learned later that Lawrence Powers was experimenting at Oak Ridge, but it so happened that he used the wrong ingredients. While in Virginia, I decided to visit Carol Brazzel, who is a private nurse for Caroline Kennedy and John Jr. Carol tells me Danny Johnson has won the championship limbo contest sponsored by Lawrence Welk's Dance Party. Elaine O'Neal won second place in the contest. While on the plane to Austin, Texas, I find Mary Alice Austin as the stewardess. Mary tells me Kay Sparks, one of our former classmates is modeling in one of the prominent fashion houses in Paris, France. Mary also tells me that Larry Couch is now a famous bull fighter in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. As I continue my journey to New Mexico, I hear Jennet Powers and her husband are searching for gold in the Carlsbad Caverns. I wish them luck. While in Arizona, I learned that Patty Rickman and her husband are now living on Venus. By mistake they got on Mariner II instead of a jet to Nevada. They seem to be quite happy there and plan to stay. I find that Margie Powers is now a cosmetologist at Reno. While in Hollywood, California, I find that Peggy Stanfill is now a famous actress. While visiting with Peggy, she tells me she is to star with Elvis in a new movie. Peggy also tells me that Sandra Warren is a hula dancer in Hawaii.
